Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights this week are given by Christina and Paul Halsey in loving memory of her husband, and his father, Maurice Halsey.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

Grant to us, O Lord, purity of heart and strength of purpose, that no passion may hinder us from doing your will, and no weakness from doing it; that in your light we may see light clearly, and in your service find perfect freedom; through Christ our Lord. Amen. Augustine of Hippo (354-430)

Welcome

We welcome you all to our worship today. At St Mark's Church we especially welcome the family and friends of Jack David Farthing who has been brought for Baptism

Sentence of Scripture Philippians Chapter 4

Rejoice in the Lord always.
I will say it again: Rejoice!

Collect Prayer for the Day

Before we read we pray

Lord, in your goodness, open our eyes to your light and so fill our hearts with your glory, that we may acknowledge Jesus as Saviour and hold fast to his word in sincerity and truth. We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading - Exodus 32: 1-14

When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him." Aaron answered them, "Take off the gold earrings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me." So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron. He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt." When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, "Tomorrow there will be a festival to the LORD." So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings. Afterward they sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry. Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt, have become corrupt. They have been quick to turn away from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and have said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.' "I have seen these people," the LORD said to Moses, "and they are a stiff-necked people. Now leave me alone so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation." But Moses sought the favour of the LORD his God. "O LORD," he said, "why should your anger burn against your people, whom you brought out of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to whom you swore by your own self: 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and I will give your descendants all this land I promised them, and it will be their inheritance forever.' " Then the LORD relented and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.

(This is the word of the Lord - Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading Philippians 4:1-9

Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends! I plead with Euodia and I plead with Syntyche to agree with each other in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you, loyal yoke fellow, help these women who have contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you

(This is the word of the Lord-- Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come. "Then he sent some more servants and said, 'Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.' "But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business. The rest seized his servants, mistreated them and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. Go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find.' So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad, and the wedding hall was filled with guests. "But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. 'Friend,' he asked, 'how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' The man was speechless. Then the king told the attendants, 'Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' "For many are invited, but few are chosen." (This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God, you have taught us through your Son that love is the fulfilling of the law: grant that we may love you with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hymns (Please distribute Morning Worship booklet)

1. Tell out my soul
2. Colours of day
3. Jesus put this song
4. Love divine
5. Thine be the glory

Commentary

In the passage from Matthew this week we read about a very special invitation to a banquet. It is not just an ordinary party to which a man invites guests, it is an invitation from a king. When kings threw banquets and invited you along you went, not because you necessarily wanted to, but because it was expected. It's just like the boss inviting you round for a meal, if you want to get on you go, you don't say you have a better offer or make excuses. So, the best food and drink would have been prepared, servants were sent out to "summon the invited guests to the feast." According to the custom of the time, the guests would already received the invitation and were waiting for when things were prepared and they received the announcement to come to the feast. The guests had already accepted the invitation and been catered for! But the story takes an unexpected twist. At the last minute and for some unexplained reason the cream of society behaves quite rudely. They claim they have more important things to do, important business to conduct and so, cannot come to the feast. What an insult to the royal house! They are utterly unappreciative of the offer which is made. They are so ungrateful that one not only refuses to go but kills the servant who bring the invitation.

So in the story Jesus is clear, the deviant guests were not outsiders. When people heard Jesus speaking about a king inviting people to a banquet they would know exactly what he was speaking about. The King is God and the people who were invited were the Jews. God was planning the great party for which the Jewish people had waited for so long, but now at the last minute they were refusing. The prophets who had proclaimed the coming kingdom had been ridiculed and killed, the Messiah was present and ready and they all rejected the offer. The hearers would also come to realise exactly what Jesus meant when he spoke of the King sending his soldiers to destroy the city. After the fall of Jerusalem in AD70 the pieces of the story would all fit neatly into place.

So what about those who came? Since the guests who were invited refused, the invitation went out instead to all and sundry. People who would never have imagined being invited to such an event heard the call, the labourers, the down and outs, the criminals and just ordinary folk. Nobody who came would be able to boast of anything they had done to get there. They could claim no privilege or rank, none of them had a special status. They came because they were hungry, not because they could afford it or were posh. So the parable becomes our story too, we are now the recipients of God's gracious hospitality and generosity. We are Christian people because of God's generosity, not because of any good we may have done. We claim no right and we feel privileged to find ourselves in the banquet hall. We are from the highways and byways no longer. We are honoured guests. Just like the guests invited to the banquet in the story, each one of us is invited as a special guest by God to his celebration. It is a truly remarkable thing that God should bother with us at all and yet he goes so far as to make us honoured guests.

In the midst of a troubled and turbulent world, where the frailty of life is ever before us, the simple message of this parable should come to us as a great reassurance. In spite of the seeming unimportance which attaches to us in the universe, nevertheless our lives are significant. Life might so often seem cheap and unimportant and yet we are individually watched over and cared for by God. The realisation that God is involved with each of us should change the way that we think about things, life is no longer a series of abstract choices, we are not adrift subject to the vagaries of life. This message should cause us to have much peace and a sense of purpose for the future which gives real meaning to our lives. Sadly for many people this is simply not the case, offered such a magnificent invitation they choose to ignore the blessings of God and miss out on the generosity of God. The message of the story is clear, if you choose not to go, then somebody else will take your place. For this reason we should not be slow to respond but willingly answer God's call on our lives. Charles Royden

Meditation—The following was mentioned in our address about Emmaus last week.

Appeal by Abbé Pierre, printed in Le Figaro and broadcast on Radio Luxembourg on 1st February 1954.

"My friends, come help... A woman froze to death tonight at 3:00 AM, on the pavement of Sebastopol Boulevard, clutching the eviction notice which the day before had made her homeless... Each night, more than two thousand endure the cold, without food, without bread, more than one almost naked. To face this horror, emergency lodgings are not enough.

"Hear me; in the last three hours, two aid centers have been created: one under canvas at the foot of the Panthéon, on Montagne Sainte-Geneviève Street; the other in Courbevoie. They are already overflowing, we must open them everywhere. Tonight, in every town in France, in every quarter of Paris, we must hang out placards under a light in the dark, at the door of places where there are blankets, bunks, soup; where one may read, under the title 'Fraternal Aid Center', these simple words: 'If you suffer, whoever you are, enter, eat, sleep, recover hope, here you are loved'.

"The forecast is for a month of harsh frosts. For as long as the winter lasts, for as long as the centers exist, faced with their brothers dying in poverty, all mankind must be of one will: the will to make this situation impossible. I beg of you, let us love one another enough to do it now. From so much pain, let a wonderful thing be given unto us: the shared spirit of France. Thank you! Everyone can help those who are homeless. We need, tonight, and at the latest tomorrow, five thousand blankets, three hundred big American tents, and two hundred catalytic stoves. Bring them quickly to the Hôtel Rochester, number ninety-two, la Boétie Street. The rendez-vous for volunteers and trucks to carry them: tonight at eleven, in front of the tent on Montagne Sainte-Geneviève. Thanks to you, no man, no child, will sleep on the asphalt or on the waterfronts of Paris tonight. Thank you."

Prayers for today and the week ahead

Gracious God, rejoicing in your blessings, trusting in your loving care for all, we bring you our prayers for the world.

We pray for the created world: for those who seek to rebuild what has been destroyed; for those who work to alleviate hunger, poverty and disease – in particular those who risk their own lives to care for victims of ebola; for those whose lives have been turned upside down by conflicts in the Middle East; for those who have power to bring change for the better and to renew hope.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

We pray for our nation: for those who have authority in our national life, framing our laws and shaping our common life; for those who work to keep the peace and foster mutual understanding and respect; for those who teach, heal and care, and all who give freely of themselves in the service of others.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

We pray for people in need: those for whom life is a bitter struggle; those whose lives are clouded by death or loss, pain or disability, discouragement or fear, shame or rejection. May they know the warmth, the comfort and the assurance of your love.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

We pray for the church, weighed down by the baggage of history, drawn on by the power of the Spirit: may all who profess your name learn to work and witness together, surrounded by the great company of heaven. We pray for those who lead us here and at St. Mark's : give them strength for all that they seek to be and to do.

Lord in your mercy: hear our prayer.

An evening with a presentation from Revd Dr Keith Albans, a Director from MHA, refreshments and discussion opportunities. If you would like to know more about volunteering for Friends for Life or would like to come along to the Forum, please contact Joanne Barrow on 213038, barrow.ffl@virginmedia.com or visit the website www.friendsforlifebedford.org.uk

Action for Children A big thank you once again to the 16 volunteers who knocked on 542 doors for this September's House to House Collection on behalf of Action for Children. The total raised in our St. Mark's /Brickhill area was a very worthwhile £630; an 8% increase on last year. Action for Children will be able to claim a further £64 from HMRC as a result of completed Gift-Aid forms. The average content in the envelopes has increased by over 8% which continues the upward trend seen over the past decade or so. However this is partly offset by a general fall in the percentage of filled envelopes handed over at the door. So thank you to those Brickhill residents who gave so generously. Mike Elliott

Putnoe Heights Harvest Festival Thank you for all the generous donations for the food bank. These are now in their warehouse and we await news of their estimate of how many people our donation will feed. Thanks also to all who helped to make the lunch a success. Ticket sales and donations have enabled us to donate £270 to BECHAR.

1st Putnoe Brownies and Rainbows are taking part in The Poppy Challenge. This badge has been created by 1st Kedington Rangers in support of the work of the Royal British Legions Poppy Appeal and to spread the awareness about Remembrance Day whilst also raising funds for the work that they do. Last year (2013) they raised £2000 for the Royal British Legions through sales of this badge. The Brownies have to do six clauses for one of the clauses we have chosen. Make a paper chain 100 links long and write the name of 100 fallen soldiers from your area and hang this in your meeting area. We would like to make this chain personal and would like to invite any members of the church whose family lost some in WW1 to leave the details of that person their name and age at the church office and the Brownies will put it in the chain which we will display on Remembrance Sunday. Thank You Sharon Tanner Brown Owl

St Mark's Christmas Craft Fayre Saturday

22 November 2014 It comes round faster and faster each year. Our Craft Fayre is on 22nd November and your help is needed in so many ways. We will be having the usual Church stalls again and donated items will be greatly appreciated. New Tombola: New and unused items needed so please look in your cupboards etc. Homemade Cake Stall: Homemade cakes, Secondhand Book Stall: Books in good condition plus any jigsaws (with all the pieces) please. Indoor Plant Stall: Now is the time to plant cuttings and bulbs etc. Refreshments: Donations of tray bakes to sell with our teas and coffees. And of course the Christmas Prize Draw: Any new items suitable for raffle prizes would be really welcome. Raffle tickets will be on sale in October. We will need a lot of help nearer the time with leaflet delivering, selling of raffle tickets distributing posters etc. Please let me know of any locations where you think a poster would go. If you are able to help us with manning a stall, on the 22 November, helping in the kitchen or in any other way, we would love to hear from you. As always your help is very much appreciated and we could not run this large fundraising event without your help. Please contact Avril Williams.

Defibrillator Training The next session of training will take place at St Mark's on Sunday 19 October from 2.00pm—4.00pm The defibrillator will start the heart of somebody who would otherwise die. You cannot hurt anybody by using it—if their heart hasn't stopped it doesn't work! So please come along and learn you might save a life.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office

Shirley Christine Filby
Elsa Maud Slater

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
