Bible Notes - Fifth Sunday of Lent

Verse of Scripture Romans Chapter 8:11

And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

A Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

Almighty God, your Son came into the world to free us all from sin and death. Breathe upon us with the power of your Spirit, that we may be raised to new life in Christ, and serve you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading - Ezekiel 37: 1-14

The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" I said, "O Sovereign LORD, you alone know." Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life. I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'" So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.'" So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army. Then he said to me: "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.' Therefore prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O my people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you, my people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.'

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Romans 8: 6-11

The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace; the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God. You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ. But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness. And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you. (This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - John 11: 1- 45

Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. So the sisters sent word to Jesus, "Lord, the one you love is sick." When he heard this, Jesus said, "This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God's glory so that God's Son may be glorified through it." Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. Yet when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days. Then he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." "But Rabbi," they said, "a short while ago the Jews tried to stone you, and yet you are going back there?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? A man who walks by day will not stumble, for he sees by this world's light. It is when he walks by night that he stumbles, for he has no light." After he had said this, he went on to tell them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up." His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better." Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep. So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." Then Thomas (called Didymus) said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him." On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem, and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home. "Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha answered, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" "Yes, Lord," she told him, "I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world." And after she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. "The Teacher is here," she said, "and is asking for you." When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there. When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. "Where have you laid him?" he asked. "Come and see, Lord," they replied. Jesus wept. Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. "Take away the stone," he said. "But, Lord," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time there is a bad odour, for he has been there four days." Then Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me."

When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face.

Jesus said to them, "Take off the grave clothes and let him go." Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, put their faith in him.

(Reader: This is the word of the Lord All : Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you have taught us that what we do for the least of our brothers and sisters we do also for you: give us the will to be the servant of others as you were the servant of all, and gave up your life and died for us, but are alive and reign, now and for ever. Amen

Commentary

Mary and Martha send Jesus word of Lazarus' illness, and clearly they do so because they want Jesus to act to heal Lazarus, whom he loves, and believe that Jesus is capable of doing so. Jesus must have known how desperate Mary and Martha would be, nevertheless he waits and does not go to heal Lazarus. Instead he waits two days. Jesus loves them but he knows that when he finally arrives in Bethany, there will be no ambiguity about Lazarus' death, Out of fear for his safety, the disciples plead with Jesus not to go. Jesus knows that he has work to do and so he cannot ignore this duty. It is an inspiration for us that the disciples accompanied Jesus into danger, they were not lacking in courage or commitment.

Jesus says that Lazarus is sleeping (kekoimetai) the word means asleep, but is also a euphemism for death. Jewish people believed that the soul remained in the vicinity of the body for three days, hoping to rejoin the body. On the fourth day, the soul would finally face reality and depart. The fact that Lazarus has been in the tomb four days means that there can be no possibility of his soul rejoining his body. Four days means that it is hopeless.

Jesus says, 'I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. These verses form the heart of this Gospel lesson. While we call this story the healing (or resurrection) of Lazarus, it is in fact the story of Jesus' revelation that he is the resurrection and the life. This is one of several "I am" (ego eimi) statements by Jesus in this Gospel—statements that reveal Jesus' true identity. Jesus is the bread of life (6:35) and the light of the world (9:5). His statement that he is the resurrection and the life is the high point of these "I am" statements. "I am," of course, is God's name-- the name revealed to Moses at the burning bush (Exod 3:14).

When Jesus asks Martha if she believes, she replies with a threefold statement of faith. Jesus is (1) the Messiah (2) the Son of God and (3) the one coming into the world. This is the fifth and most complete confession of faith in this Gospel (see 1:49; 4:42; 6:69; 9:35-38).

Mary's greeting to Jesus is much like Martha's, full of grief and reproach. When Jesus sees her weeping, he is greatly disturbed in spirit (embrimaomai) and deeply moved (tarasso). This is a difficult passage to understand. The first verb, embrimaomai, suggests anger. Why would Jesus have been angry? Perhaps Jesus is angry at Martha and Mary's lack of faith. Perhaps he is angry that the Jews—outsiders—are intruding on this very private and personal situation. Perhaps he was angry because he found himself face to face with the realm of Satan which, in this instance, was represented by death." Perhaps Jesus shares the sadness of his friends and their neighbours"

We should note that this Gospel has said little about Jesus' emotions until now. In this lesson, however, he loves Lazarus, Martha and Mary. He is disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He weeps. Emotion is not neat and tidy. Here Jesus is dealing with a dear friend, Mary, in the throes of grief. Her weeping is not gentle and controlled but would be unrestrained wailing and shrieking almost hysterically, for it was the Jewish point of view that the more unrestrained the weeping was the more honour it paid to the dead. The natural human response in the face of such terrible grief is a welling up of emotions—grief, fear, anger, and frustration—all mixed together. Mary's grief clearly hooks something deep and vulnerable in Jesus.

Jesus, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.'

The grave is a cave with a stone lying against it, one of the many parallels between this story and that of Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus cries out with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.' "

It would be easy to misunderstand this miracle as a simple favour by Jesus to his dear friends—and to see Jesus as a mere wonder-worker—but this sign serves greater purposes. It is "for God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it" (v. 4). It authenticates Jesus as "the resurrection and the life" as well as confirming the promise that "those who believe in me, though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die" (vv. 25-26).

The verses just after this reading 45-53, make it explicit that the Jewish leaders were extremely angry with Jesus. The raising of Lazarus was a miracle too far. They feared that the result of a miracle such as this would cause people to believe in Jesus and invoke the wrath of Rome and the loss of their positions. The healing/resurrection of Lazarus, then, is the precipitating event that leads to Jesus' crucifixion. The events that follow this story are the plotting of the Sanhedrin, the anointing by Mary, the plot against Lazarus, and the triumphal entry, soon Jesus will be dead.

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world: grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross, we may triumph in the power of his victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God and heavenly Father, open our eyes to see you at work in our world: grant us wisdom in using our gifts, grace to enliven our churches, and courage to transform our communities. By your Holy Spirit, equip us for the challenge ahead, excite us to follow your vision and empower us in witness and service. To you be the glory through Jesus our Saviour and mighty Redeemer. Vision for Action Prayer of the St Albans Diocese

Putnoe Junior Church

As many of you already know Sam Ware will be resigning from her role as Junior Church co-coordinator at Easter to concentrate on the new baby. She will however be continuing in a welcomed support role when family life allows. I'm sure you will want to join us in thanking Sam for all the hard and dedicated work she has done for the young members of our church over the last 5 years and to wish here well with the new baby.

After Easter due to Sam leaving and the larger numbers regularly attending Junior Church we will be reorganising the groups slightly Watch this space!!

We very much appreciate the help given by members of the congregation on a Sunday and a new rota for after Easter will be on the notice board next week.
Thanks Liz

Vocation. The Bishop of St Albans has appointed six vocations officers to encourage and nourish vocation across the diocese. They will work with Canon Michael Sansom, Director of Ordinands and the Revd Becky Totterdell, Assistant Director of Ordinands and Bishop's Officer for Women in Ministry. They are a mixed team of Readers, ordained and lay people. The six include our own Revd Dr Joan Crossley

Vocations Sunday on April 17th is an opportunity for churches and congregations to focus attention on vocation, both in the broader sense of seeking how best to use our gifts and skills and in the narrower sense of giving time to think about God's call to public ministry in the church. If you think you have a vocation, lay or ordained, or wish to explore the use of your gifts, please speak with Joan.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. ### A Hymn for Sunday

The journey of life may be easy may be hard, there'll be dangers on the way;
with Christ at my side I'll do battle as I ride
'gainst the foe that would lead me astray.

*Will you ride, ride, ride with the King of kings,
will you follow my leader true;
will you shout hosanna to the lowly Son of God,
who died for me and you?*

My burden is light and a song is in my heart,
as I tavel on life's way;
for Christ is my Lord and he's given me his word,
that by my side he'll stay.

When doubts arise and when tears are in my eyes,
when all seems lost to me,
with Christ as my guide I can smile whate'er betide,
for he my strength will be.

I'll follow my leader wherever he may go,
for Jesus is my friend;
he'll lead me on to the place where he has gone,
when I come to my journey's end.

Derek Worlock took great courage, and was affirmed by the visit of Pope John Paul II to Liverpool's two cathedrals in 1982."
