Verse of Scripture -Amos 5 v 6

Seek the Lord and live.

Collect Prayer - Before we read we pray

God, our judge and saviour, teach us to be open to your truth and to trust in your love, that we may live each day with confidence in the salvation which is given through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Common Worship Shorter Collect

First Bible Reading - Amos 5: 6-7, 10-15

Seek the LORD and live, or he will sweep through the house of Joseph like a fire; it will devour, and Bethel will have no one to quench it. You who turn justice into bitterness and cast righteousness to the ground you hate the one who reproves in court and despise him who tells the truth. You trample on the poor and force him to give you grain. Therefore, though you have built stone mansions, you will not live in them; though you have planted lush vineyards, you will not drink their wine. For I know how many are your offences and how great your sins. You oppress the righteous and take bribes and you deprive the poor of justice in the courts. Therefore the prudent man keeps quiet in such times, for the times are evil. Seek good, not evil, that you may live. Then the LORD God Almighty will be with you, just as you say he is. Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts. Perhaps the LORD God Almighty will have mercy on the remnant of Joseph (Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - Hebrews 4: 12-16

For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account. Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin. Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

(Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - Mark 10: 17-31 Please stand for the Gospel Reading

When the Gospel is announced -

As Jesus started on his way, a man ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. "Good teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" "Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "No one is good—except God alone. You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honour your father and mother.'" "Teacher," he declared, "all these I have kept since I was a boy." Jesus looked at him and loved him. "One thing you lack," he said. "Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." At this the man's face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, "Who then can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God." Peter said to him, "We have left everything to follow you!" "I tell you the truth," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and with them, persecutions) and in the age to come, eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

(Reader : This is the Gospel of Christ All: Praise to Christ our Lord

Post Communion Prayer

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute Holy Communion Booklets and Hymns and Psalms)

- 135 Go tell it on the mountain
- 704 O Jesus I have promised
- 739 May the mind of Christ my saviour

Commentary

Bible Notes Hebrews 4: 12-16

The Word of God. In this part of the letter, Paul is explaining the action of the word of God. It is not a neutral thing but alive and active in the world. The action is not to be trifled with. The writer makes it sound almost like a weapon, a scalpel perhaps which cleaves between truth and falsehood, cutting away evasions and half-truths. The Word of God is a force to be reckoned with. God can see into the hearts and minds of his people. Translations of the final phrase of verse 14 vary from the vague "with whom we have to do" to a much more powerful "Before whom we must render account". Although both are correct the latter translation is more of a warning against evasion. The picture drawn in the first half of the passage is slightly threatening, saying in effect "lies are useless" but in the second part, the compassion of God pours like balm. Christ is the compassionate priest, one who will intercede with God on our behalf. Jesus is able to understand our human frailty because of his human aspect. He knows the temptations with which we are confronted. Jesus understands the problems of being human and will not judge us with inhuman harshness. The final phrase conjures up a lovely, truly heart-warming image. We are invited to come near to the "throne of grace" where all will be judged. There, at the foot of the throne we will find not coldness but loving mercy. That gracious compassion can then be turned outward to those in need. The image drawn is of a forgiveness which overflows from God to us and from us to those around us. Comforting words indeed.

Joan Crossley

Meditation

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labours and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy. desiderata - Max Ehrmann - 1927

Thought for the day Believe more deeply. Hold your face up to the light, even though for the moment you do not see. Bill Wilson

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead.

God speaks to the Soul: It is my nature that makes me love you often, For I am love itself. It is my longing that makes me love you intensely, For I yearn to be loved from the heart. It is my eternity that makes me love you long, For I have no end. AMEN

Mechthild of Magdeburg - 13th century

Send Thy peace O Lord, which is perfect and everlasting, that our souls may radiate peace.

Send Thy peace O Lord, that we may think, act and speak harmoniously.

Send Thy peace O Lord, that we may be contented and thankful for Thy bountiful gifts.

Send Thy peace O Lord, that amidst our worldly strife, we may enjoy Thy bliss.

Send Thy peace O Lord, that we may endure all, tolerate all, in the thought of Thy grace and mercy.

Send Thy peace O Lord, that our lives may become a Divine vision and in Thy light, all darkness may vanish.

Send Thy peace O Lord, our Father and Mother, that we Thy children on Earth may all unite in one family. AMEN - Pir-o-murshid layat Khan - 1921

May the living waters of Christ cleanse us, may the Spirit descend upon us, and the blessing of God be with us, this day and for evermore. Amen

Veiled Issue.

The Archbishop of Canterbury's representative to the Muslim Community in England, the Bishop of Bolton, this week defended the right of Muslim women to wear veils over their faces. Nevertheless, he welcomed the debate on the issue. The Bishop, the Rt Revd David Gillett, was speaking on Monday after the Leader of the House of Commons, Jack Straw, said that he asked Muslim women who attended his constituency surgery in Blackburn to remove the full veil, or niqab, from their faces. The Church Times conducted a website vote on whether readers thought Muslim women should be discouraged from wearing the veil—59% said yes as we went to print. Bearing in mind that this is arguably the more tolerant face of mainstream Christianity, what would most people on the street say?

Woodland Burial at Keysoe

What do people think about woodland burial? On the Keysoe and Bolnhurst Village website, people have been taking part in a poll to say how they feel about woodland burial. The results show that there is widespread support for woodland burial at Keysoe, but we still have to win over some hearts and minds. We are creating a protected natural woodland which will be place of beauty and over the coming years it is our hope that people will come to appreciate not only the importance of what is taking place, but also the positive impact that woodland burial can have for generations to come.

Thank You. To all of those who attended our church council meetings this week. Each church council saw important new projects discussed and decisions taken which will impact upon the future ministry of our churches.
Agreement was reached at St Mark's to proceed with the building of the Garden of Remembrance. This is a leap of faith considering that funds are not available to cover the cost of £50,000 to build the new memorial wall and landscaping. However the council were convinced the work must proceed now to avoid even more increased costs in the future.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.
