Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Liz Hayward in memory of her mother Olive Betts.

The flowers at St. Mark's have been given by Geoff and Margaret Appleton in celebration of their Ruby Wedding Anniversary.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

Living God,
you have created all that is.
Send forth your Spirit
to renew and restore us,
that we may proclaim
your good news
in ways and words
that all will understand and believe.
Amen.

Pentecost

Opening Verse of Scripture -Romans 5:5

The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Collect Prayer for the Day Before we read we pray:

Almighty God, who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit on the disciples with the wind from heaven and with tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the Gospel: send us out in the power of the same Spirit to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Methodist Worship

First Reading – Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs--we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine." Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: "In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

(Reader: This is the Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading – Revelation Chapter 8:14-17

Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father." The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs--heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

(Reader: This is the Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading – John 14:8-17

Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us." Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you are not just my own. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves. I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it. "If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you forever-- the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. (Reader: This is the Word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Faithful God, who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation the way of life eternal: open our lips by your Spirit, that every tongue may tell of your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hymns - (Please distribute Hymns and Psalms and Morning Worship)

1. Alleluia, sing to Jesus (In Partnership News)
2. For I'm building a people of power (in Partnership News)

Commentary

Our readings are about the Holy Spirit changing people. In Romans 8: 14-17 people become children of God—in a new and intimate relationship with him in which there is no fear. We are not to be afraid of God for, as John says, He is love and perfect love casts out fear.

The gospel reading talks about the Spirit of truth, he will live in us and be with us. Through the Holy Spirit God is with us, through all the changing circumstances of our lives, to guide and strengthen or encourage us. Shades of Psalm 23 here.

Then in Acts 2 we read of the release of God's spirit of love— to empower and transform— to start the amazing story of the worldwide spread of the goodness of God's love in Jesus, our crucified, risen and ascended Lord.

Nature shows that God delights in diversity, and so it is in the Church, the body of Christ. Every Christian is different; each has a special and different contribution to make, and it is by the Holy Spirit that God enables and equips us to serve him in the way (s) that he wants.

We all have different gifts and in the New Testament there are lists of some of the gifts of the Spirit. They range widely! 1 Corinthians 12: 7-11 lists wisdom, knowledge, faith, gifts of healing, miraculous powers, prophesy, distinguishing between spirits, speaking in tongues and interpretation. In verses 28-30 Paul lists gifts to enable people to be apostles, teachers, helpers and administrators; evangelists and pastors (Ephesians 4: 11); serving, encouraging, giving leadership, showing mercy.(Romans 12:7 while 1 Peter:4 includes hospitality and speaking.

All good gifts are from God. The German theologian Jurgen Moltmann points out "In principle every human potentiality and capacity can become a gift of the Spirit through a person's call if they are used in Christ." In Ephesians 4 Paul says that God wants the body of Christ to be built up until we reach unity in the faith... We will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work. And that can involve us all!

For each of us is unique, each one of us is special to God; each one of us is called to serve Him. There is no suggestion at all that all Christians have, or should have, the same gift (s). That would be as silly as saying that God wants us all to be vicars or organists or Church Treasurers! The mind boggles, and Paul writes against such views in 1 Corinthians 12: 12-26. It is well worth reading.

Christians discover that as God equips them to serve him in different ways, so their lives begin to be changed and these new characteristics that develop in our lives are described by Paul as fruits of the Spirit. He lists them in Galatians 5: 22– love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self– control.

Nicky Gumbel in his book on the Alpha course says that the most important fruit is love. He says that love is at the heart of the Christian Faith, that the Bible is the story of God's love for us, and that God's greatest desire is that we should respond by loving Him and our neighbour. Without this love, he says (echoing St Paul), everything else counts for nothing. Now there's a thought for us all. Richard Ledger

Meditation

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast; it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.

(1 Corinthians 13: 4-8)

Prayers for Sunday and the Week Ahead

O God, you have graciously brought us to this hour,
The time when you poured out your Holy Spirit in tongues of fire upon your apostles, filling them with the gift of your grace; so most wonderful Lord, may we too receive this blessing; and as we seek to praise you, merciful God, in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, may we share in your eternal kingdom. For your name is worthy of all honour and majesty and you are to be glorified in hymns of blessing, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and for ever, to the ages of ages.

Eastern Orthodox Church.

Gracious God

We thank you for the great gift of your Holy Spirit– an experience which transformed the lives of the apostles, which has changed the lives of countless believers across the centuries, and which has power to reshape our lives here and now. Open our hearts, our minds and our souls to your living presence so that we shall know your life-changing power for ourselves.

Nick Fawcett

Lord God Almighty, pour upon us your Spirit,
and set us on fire with love for you,
that we may bring forth the fruits of love, joy and peace,
and live to the praise of your Holy name;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Come as joy to disperse our sorrows,
come as power to enable us and encourage us.
Come as love and revive your church,
that we may show and share your gifts,
that we may reach out in love through your grace.
David Adam

When breathing stops, we die. Jesus' Spirit remains with his community as its breathing. He will not rescind on the gift of his life-giving breath. Just as God breathed breath into Adam to make him a "living being," on Pentecost that same Spirit gave birth to a breathing and forgiving community. Now, the new life source of the Spirit enables us to continue Jesus' ministry of compassion and forgiveness.

Did you know..... One of the major themes of the fourth gospel is love. The word appears 57 times in fourth gospel, and the two great commandments are to love God and love one another. The followers of Jesus "will keep" the commandment to love. This is not so much an order--"you will keep, dagnabbit"-- but a simple statement of fact, i.e. this is how followers of Jesus live.

Hymns for Sunday

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus,
his the sceptre, his the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph,
His the victory alone;
hark! the songs of peaceful Sion
thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus out of every nation
has redeemed us by his blood.

Alleluia! bread of angels,
you on earth our food, our stay;
Alleluia! Here the sinful
flee to you from day to da;
Alleluia not as orphans
are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluia! He is near us,
faith believes, nor questions how.

Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory be to God on high;
to the Father, and the Saviour,
who has gained the victory ;
Glory to the Holy Spirit,
fount of love and sanctity.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
to the triune Majesty

For I'm building a people of power
And I'm making a people of praise,
That will move through this land by my Spirit,
And will glorify my precious name.
Build your Church, Lord,
Make us strong Lord,
Join our hearts Lord, through your Son.
Make us one, Lord,
In your body,
In the kingdom of your Son.

Footprints Walking weekend Sept 24-26: The chosen venue for this year's weekend away is the Best Western Studley Castle Hotel, Castle Road, Studley, Warwickshire B80 7AJ, built in the victorian style of a medieval castle. Please contact Barry Snelson at the Putnoe Heights Church office [Tuesday to Thursday] on 01234 365630 or at home on 01234 344417 as soon as possible to register your interest. Non-walkers are welcome as there is ample opportunity to visit local places, such as Stratford-Upon-Avon."

Footprints Walk The next walk is on Sunday, 6th June starting at 2.30pm. It is just over 3 miles and starts from St Denys Church in Colmworth. This is just south of the junction of the Little Staughton road with Honeydon Road. If there is no parking available near the church, there is more a short distance down Honeydon Road (a waymarked footpath leads back to the church). Further details from Sue or Richard Butler Tel: 354183.

Visit our online chapel, Light a Candle of Remembrance. We have now provided the opportunity to visit our online chapel and light a prayer candle. Please visit www.thischurch.com and click on the candle.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Pauline Winifred Reissland

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
