3. John 17: 1-11

Thank You

The flowers at St Mark's have been given this week by Mrs Eason in memory of her husband John

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Miss Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

Forgive us, O Lord, when we listen,
but do not hear;
when we look, but do not see;
and when we feel, but do not act;
and by your mercy and grace draw us into the righteous deeds of your kingdom of justice and peace; through Christ our Lord. Amen

Maria Hare, 1798-1870

6th Sunday of Easter

Opening Verse - Psalm 66:1

Shout to God with joy, everyone on earth! Sing about the glory of his name! Give him glorious praise!

Collect Prayer for the Day

God our redeemer, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant, that as by His death he has recalled us to life, so by His continual presence in us He may raise us to eternal joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen Common Worship

First Bible Reading - Acts 17: 22-31

Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: "Men of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Now what you worship as something unknown I am going to proclaim to you. "The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by hands. And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all men life and breath and everything else. From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 'For in him we live and move and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.' "Therefore since we are God's offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone—an image made by man's design and skill. In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent. For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead." (This is the word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading-1 Peter 3: 13-22

Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble. Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing. For, "Whoever would love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from deceitful speech. He must turn from evil and do good; he must seek peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil. "Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear; do not be frightened. "But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behaviour in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. It is better, if it is God's will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil. For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit, through whom also he went and preached to the spirits in prison who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water, and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a good conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

John 14.16

(This is the word of the Lord - All: Thanks be to God)

Third Reading - John 14: 15-21

“If you love me, you will obey what I command. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you forever—the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be[a] in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. Whoever has my commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves me. He who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love him and show myself to him.” (This is the word of the Lord: All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ you have assured your children of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him: deliver us from the death of sin and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

Commentary

This is what William Barclay says about the reading from Acts.

“There were in fact many altars to unknown gods in Athens. Six hundred years before this a terrible pestilence had fallen on the city. Nothing could halt it. A Cretan poet, Epimenides, had come forward with a plan. A flock of black and white sheep were let loose throughout the city from the Areopagus. Wherever each lay down it was sacrificed to the nearest god; and if a sheep lay down near the shrine of no known god it was sacrificed to “The Unknown God.” Athens had its regiment of unknown gods. From that Paul takes his starting point. Paul could fit his message for any audience. There are a series of steps in his sermon. (i) God is not the made but the maker, therefore He who made all things cannot be worshipped by anything made by the hands of man. It is all too true that men often worship what their hands have made. If a man’s God be that to which he gives all his time, thought, energy, life, many a man is engaged in worshipping material, man-made things. (ii) God has guided history. It was He who had been behind the rise and fall of nations in the days gone by. His hand was and is on the helm of things. (iii) God has made man so that instinctively he longs for God. There is that in man which makes him grope in the darkness after God because man is a child of God and kin to God. (iv) The days of groping and ignorance are past. So long as men had to search in the shadows they could not know God and God excused their follies and their mistakes; but now in Christ the full blaze of the knowledge and revelation of God have come. The days of excuses are past because now the truth has come. (v) The day of judgement is coming. For man life is neither a progress to extinction, as it was to the Epicureans, nor yet a pathway to absorption to God, as it was to the Stoics; it was a journey to the judgement seat of God where Jesus Christ was Judge. (vi) The proof of the pre-eminence of Christ is the Resurrection. It is no unknown God but a Risen Christ with whom we have to deal.”

The language is slightly quaint, but it does bring home to us that we need to be able to defend the faith we hold in a reasonable way. We ought to know what we believe - 1 Peter 3 points to this too. We should think our faith out - and be able to state it in an understandable way. We shouldn’t give the impression that “faith is believing what we know isn’t true!”. It needs to be a first hand discovery and not a second-hand story. That is what Charlie said on Easter Day!

So, if when we are asked what we believe, can we answer honestly? And if we are then asked why we believe it, what can we say then? We need to try to answer with “gentleness and respect” (1 Peter 3¹⁵). Lots of people state what they believe with arrogance - seeking to ram their news down other people’s throats and this puts others off easily. But no-one possesses the whole truth. Humility might avoid some acrimonious theological debates. Now there’s a thought and a message to share! In the end, of course, what really carries weight is not so much the words we say but lives we live. Someone said “I’d rather see a sermon than hear one any day” and “A saint is someone whose life makes it easier to believe in God”. May that become daily more true of us as God continues to energise and encourage us by his Spirit who is his risen presence with us forever. Richard Ledger.

Meditation

Because

Because he emptied himself of all but love, you can be filled.
Because his body was broken, your life can be whole.
Because his blood was shed, your sins can be forgiven.
Because he submitted to injustice, you can forgive,
Because he finished his Father's work, your life has worth.
Because he was forsaken, you can never be alone.
Because he was buried, you can be raised.
Because he lives, you don't have to be afraid,
Because he reached down to you, you don't have to work your way up to him.
Because his promises are always true. You can have hope. Anna Reid.

Father, forgive.

The hatred which divides nation from nation, race from race, class from class, Father, forgive.
The covetous desires of men and nations to possess what is not their own, Father, forgive.
The greed which exploits the labours of men, and lays waste the earth, Father, forgive.
Our envy of the welfare and happiness of others, Father, forgive,
Our indifference to the plight of the homeless and the refugee, Father, forgive.
The lust which uses for ignoble ends the bodies of men and women, Father, forgive.
The pride which leads to trust in ourselves, and not in God, Father, forgive.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

I thank you, O God, for the pleasures you have given me through my senses; for the glory of thunder, for the mystery of music, the singing of birds and the laughter of children. I thank you for the delights of colour, the awe of the sunset, the wild roses in the hedgerows, the smile of friendship. I thank you for the sweetness of flowers and the scent of hay. Truly, O Lord, the earth is full of your riches!
After Edward King, Nineteenth Century.

O God, it is hard for us not to be anxious. We worry about work and money, about food and health, about weather and crops, about war and politics, about loving and being loved. Show us how perfect love casts out fear.
Monica Furlong, Twentieth Century.

Heavenly Father, we bring to you in prayer people who are suffering in mind or spirit. We remember especially those facing long and incurable illness; those cast down by the cares and sorrows of daily life; those who have lost faith and for whom the future is dark. In your mercy maintain their courage, lift their burdens and renew their faith, that they may find in you their strength, their comfort and their peace, for our Saviour's sake.
Frank Colquhoun, Twentieth Century.

Alone with none but thee, my God, I journey on my way. What need I fear, when thou art near, O King of night and day? More safe am I within thy hand than if a host did round me stand.
St Columba of Iona, Sixth Century.

God of your goodness, give me yourself, for you are sufficient for me... If I were to ask anything less I should always be in want, for in you alone do I have all.
Julian of Norwich, Fourteenth Century.

Eternal God, the light of the minds that know you, the life of the souls that love you, the strength of the wills that serve you; help us so to know you that we may truly love you, so to love you that we may fully serve you, whom to serve is perfect freedom.
Pope Gelasius' Prayer Book, Seventh or Eighth Century.

So send your Spirit, now, dear Lord to me that he may break my bonds and set me free. Amen.

Easter Offering The Dedication Service will be at Priory Methodist Church at 6.30pm on the 27th April. The theme will be "Making a Difference, Transforming Lives.

Ministerial Appointment Following the forthcoming ministerial vacancy from August of this year, we will for a period have only one full time minister in our churches. Over the coming months the Leadership Team, Church Council and Partnership Council will discuss with our parent denominations the possibilities for future ministry in our Partnership. There are currently discussions taking place at a Circuit and Deanery level about the changing nature of ministry in Bedford, as we face the fact of declining numbers of full time clergy. Inevitably we need to consider what ministry deployment will be available and how best to structure our resources. This situation provides challenges and opportunities which we will discuss together and we will all have an opportunity to engage in the process of consideration for the way forward. If you would like to participate fully in this process, then please do make sure that you have yourself nominated for a position on one of our Church Councils, forms are still available this morning.

St Mark's Church Annual General Meeting
4 May, after church. Nomination forms for the are available from the church office.

St Mark's Leadership Team. The Leadership Team at St Mark's are to assist the ministers by providing feedback and evaluation on Sunday Worship. They will write structured comments on the services, especially regarding preaching, which will then be discussed among the Leadership Team. If you have any comments on services which you would like to make we would all value your comments.

Adopt a garden bed scheme

Most people have agreed, when asked, to continue caring for their respective beds in the GoR. Thanks. Could I ask you to help Jean and I by giving your beds special attention over the next few weeks, as baby tree seedlings are taking over the world and need removing while they are small and soil still damp. Other weeds have similar ideas!

Table Top Sale on Saturday 28 June in the afternoon in aid of Church Funds. If you could help with organizing and running this event please see Joan or Liz.

Hymn 3

This joyful Eastertide
 What need is there for grieving?
 Cast all your cares aside
 And be not unbelieving:

*Come, share our Easter joy
 That death could not imprison,
 Nor any power destroy,
 Our Christ, who is arisen!*

No work for him is vain,
 No faith in him mistaken,
 For Easter makes it plain
 His kingdom is not shaken:

*Come share our Easter joy
 That death could not imprison
 Nor any power destroy
 Our Christ, who is arisen.*

Then put your trust in Christ,
 In waking or in sleeping:
 His grace on earth sufficed;
 He'll never quit his keeping:

Hymn 4

All shall be well!
 for on our Easter skies
 see Christ the Sun
 of righteousness arise.

All shall be well!
 the sacrifice is made;
 the sinner freed,
 the price of pardon paid.

All shall be well!
 The cross and passion past;
 dark night is done,
 bright morning come at last.

All shall be well!
 within our Father's plan
 death has no more
 dominion over man.

Jesus alive!
 rejoice and sing again,
 'All shall be well
 for evermore, Amen!'

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

John Molyneaux Munro Eason
Dick Kempston

*May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God,
 rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'*
