Ordinary 22

Sentence of Scripture James 1:22

Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.

Collect Prayer for the Day

Before we read we pray

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Common Worship

First Bible Reading - Deuteronomy 4:1-2,6-9

Hear now, O Israel, the decrees and laws I am about to teach you. Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the LORD your God that I give you. Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, "Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people."

What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him? And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws as this body of laws I am setting before you today? Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them. (This is the word of the Lord —Thanks be to God)

Second Bible Reading - James 1:17-27

Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all he created. My dear brothers, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, for man's anger does not bring about the righteous life that God desires. Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you. Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like a man who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it—he will be blessed in what he does. If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue, he deceives himself and his religion is worthless. Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world. (This is the word of the Lord – Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - Mark 7 (1-8, 14-15, 21-23)

Please stand and when the Gospel is announced we say - Glory to Christ our Saviour

The Pharisees and some of the teachers of the law who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus and saw some of his disciples eating food with hands that were "unclean," that is, unwashed. (The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they give their hands a ceremonial washing, holding to the tradition of the elders. When they come from the market place they do not eat unless they wash. And they observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers and kettles.) So the Pharisees and teachers of the law asked Jesus, "Why don't your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders instead of eating their food with 'unclean' hands?" He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written: "'These people honour me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men.'

You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the traditions of men."

Again Jesus called the crowd to him and said, "Listen to me, everyone, and understand this. Nothing outside a man can make him 'unclean' by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of a man that makes him 'unclean.' "

For from within, out of men's hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, arrogance and folly. All these evils come from inside and make a man 'unclean.'"

(This is the Gospel of Christ - Praise to Christ our Lord)

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymns for Sunday (Please distribute Holy Communion with PCH booklet and hymns sheet where requested)

1. Praise the Lord ye heavens adore him (Tune Austria)
2. As the deer pants for the water
3. O for a heart to praise my God
4. O dearest Lord, Thy sacred head

Commentary

Some of our gospel readings probably seem a bit far-removed from our experience, yet the argument between Jesus and the Pharisees and experts in the law is very important because it shows the great divide between Jesus and the Jewish leaders.

What the Law originally meant for Jesus was firstly, the Ten Commandments, and, secondly, the Pentateuch (the first 5 books of the Old Testament). But then the Scribes (legal experts) got to work to expand and provide detail for all rules and regulations - the oral law or tradition of the elders.

So there were detailed rules for almost everything, including especially, hand-washing for ceremonial cleanliness in order, so they believed, to be clean in the sight of God. And then there is the whole idea of what is unclean. A leper was unclean, anyone who touched a dead body was unclean, a Gentile was unclean. This is what Jesus was up against - and we know from his ministry that he didn't take any notice of this concept. And so he was regarded as wrong, as bad. After all, he touched a leper, welcomed Gentiles - though the early Church had great debates over this. And you can see why because what they had always believed and done had to change if God really did, as we read in John's gospel, love the world so much that He sent His only Son, so that whoever believes might have eternal life.

This is mind-blowing stuff - or rather was then. And verses 14-23 make up a really revolutionary New Testament passage. Jesus has shown that elaborate handwashing was irrelevant, and that sticking rigidly to the traditional law can actually mean disobeying the law of God. And then he goes on to say that nothing going into a person (i.e. food and drink) can possibly make them 'unclean'. He thus wiped out the laws for which Jews had suffered and died. No wonder the disciples were amazed. This was new doctrine - shatteringly new. Jesus is saying that things can't be clean or unclean. Only people can be clean or unclean, because of what they do - and that came from the heart.

And there are things that relate to us today. The clash still exists between worship as ritual, ceremony and the law, as the Scribes and Pharisees believed, and worship as a clean heart issuing in a loving life as Jesus showed. Today forms of worship remain an issue. Some say that worship is not real worship unless it is led by a priest ordained in a certain way, in a building consecrated in a certain way and follows a particular liturgy. Others, of course, say that that certainly isn't real worship! They want modern songs and no set pattern, so that the Holy Spirit can guide.

All these things are, of course, externals. Do they really matter?

William Temple defined worship rather differently. "To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God, to feed the mind with the truth of God, to purge the imagination by the beauty of God, to open the heart to the love of God, to devote the will to the purpose of God."

I wonder how we react to that definition? This is what we say in some of our services:

*We have come together
as the family of God in our Father's presence to offer our praise and thanksgiving, to hear and receive God's holy word,
to seek the forgiveness of our sins,
and to seek God's grace that by the power of the Holy Spirit
We may give ourselves to the service of God.*

Just suppose that we found ourselves where the only two churches available to us were a full-on Charismatic fellowship and a traditional Roman Catholic Church. Where would we worship? And why? And what if only one was available (the one we didn't choose!). What would we do then? And why? Something to ponder here - perhaps a lot? Finally in the sermon I quote 5 Bible passages. They are: Deuteronomy 4:9, 6:5 and 10:12; Ezekiel 36:26; Jeremiah 24:7; Romans 5:5; Ephesians 3:17. Do look them up! May all this feed our thoughts and faith. Richard Ledger

Meditation

Given to God

Lord Jesus,
I give thee my hands to do thy work.
I give thee my feet to go thy way.
I give thee my eyes to see as thou seest.
I give thee my tongue to speak thy words.
I give thee my mind that thou mayest think in me.
I give thee my spirit that thou mayest pray in me.
Above all, I give thee my heart that thou mayest love in me thy Father, and all mankind.
I give thee my whole self that thou mayest grow in me,
so that it is thee, Lord Jesus, who lives and works and prays in me.
(Lancelot Andrewes, 16th Century)

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

O gracious and holy Father, give us wisdom to perceive thee, intelligence to understand thee, diligence to seek thee, patience to wait for thee, eyes to behold thee, a heart to meditate upon thee, and a life to proclaim thee:
through the power of the spirit of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Attributed to St. Benedict of Nursia, sixth century

Holy Spirit of God, source of knowledge and creator of fellowship; open our minds to recognise the truth and our hearts to welcome it, that in company together we may learn your will and be strengthened to obey it: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen (Basil Naylor)

Here is my heart, O God, here it is with all its secrets; look into my thoughts, O my hope, and take away all my wrong feelings; let my eyes ever be on you and release my feet from the snare. (St Augustine 354-430)

Lord Jesus, I don't know much about you, but I am willing to learn; And I am ready to give all that I know of myself to all that I know of you: And I am willing to go on learning. (Donald Coggan)

Christ and the Pharisees Anthony van Dyck
(Flemish, 1599–1641)

The Pharisees saw Jesus as impure, he ate with unwashed hands and declared all foods clean. Jesus saw that these laws created a distinction between those who were close to God and those who were sinners. Spiritual rituals had been used as a means to exclude people and Jesus had no time for putting some people above others in a religious pecking order. Jesus advocated an entirely different system which was characterised by compassion, not adherence to religious laws. Jesus taught that there should no outcasts, not even Roman collaborators, lepers, thieves or prostitutes.

Lord! Give us weak eyes for things that do not matter and eyes full of clarity in all your truth.

May the Spirit of God give us more self-understanding and less self-consciousness, for a life of faith that is authentic and not in vain, more faultless and less worthless.

Hymns for Sunday

Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him;
praise him, angels, in the height;
sun and moon, rejoice before him,
praise him, all ye stars and light.
Praise the Lord! for he hath spoken;
worlds his mighty voice obeyed:
laws, which never shall be broken,
for their guidance he hath made.

Praise the Lord! for he is glorious;
never shall his promise fail:
God hath made his saints victorious;
sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation;
hosts on high, his power proclaim;
heaven and earth, and all creation,
laud and magnify his name!

As the deer pants for the water,
so my soul longs after You.
You alone are my heart's desire and I long to worship You.

I want You more than gold or silver,
only You can satisfy.
You alone are the real joy-giver
and the apple of my eye.

You're my Friend and You're my Brother,
even though You are a king.
I love You more than any other,
so much more than anything.

O for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free,
A heart that always feels thy blood
So freely spilt for me;

A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My great redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone;

A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean;
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within;

A heart in every thought renewed,
And full of love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine!

Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above,
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of love.

O dearest Lord, thy sacred head
With thorns was pierced for me;
O pour thy blessing on my head,
That I may think for thee.

O dearest Lord, thy sacred hands
With nails were pierced for me;
O shed thy blessing on my hands,
That they may work for thee.

O dearest Lord, thy sacred feet
With nails were pierced for me;
O pour thy blessing on my feet,
That they may follow thee.

O dearest Lord, thy sacred heart
With spear was pierced for me;
O pour thy spirit in my heart,
That I may live for thee.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office
