Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Mrs Jenny Emsley to celebrate the 65th wedding anniversary of Trevor and Mima Noble.

We are always grateful for any donations for flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Jennie Cooper 404950 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for Sunday

Give us love, O God, in our thinking and our speaking; love in all our doings and love in the hidden places of our souls; help us to love our neighbours; show us how to love those we find hard to bear and those who find it hard to bear with us; reveal your love in our joys and our sorrows; in our life and in our death; now and for ever. Amen

William Temple, 1881-1944

Ordinary 13

Opening Verses of Scripture -Isaiah 53:3

He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom men hide their faces he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Collect Prayer for the Day -

Before we read we pray

Servant Lord, grant us both the opportunity and the will to serve you day by day. May all that we do and how we bear each other's burdens be our offerings of love and service to the glory of your name. Amen Methodist Worship

First Bible Reading- Ezekial 2: 1-5

The LORD said to me, "Son of man, stand up on your feet and I will speak to you." As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet, and I heard him speaking to me. He said: "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their fathers have been in revolt against me to this very day. The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' And whether they listen or fail to listen - for they are a rebellious house - they will know that a prophet has been among them." (Reader : This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 2 Corinthians 12: 2-10

I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know--God knows. And I know that this man--whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows-- was caught up to paradise. He heard inexpressible things, things that man is not permitted to tell. I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say. To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong. (Reader: This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading –Mark 6: 1-13

Jesus went to his home town, accompanied by his disciples. When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. "Where did this man get these things?" they asked. "What's this wisdom that has been given him, that he even does miracles! Isn't this the carpenter? Isn't this Mary's son and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" And they took offence at him. Jesus said to them, "Only in his home town, among his relatives and in his own house is a prophet without honour." He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them. And he was amazed at their lack of faith. Then Jesus went round teaching from village to village. Calling the Twelve to him, he sent them out two by two and gave them authority over evil spirits. These were his instructions: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. Wear sandals but not an extra tunic. Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave, as a testimony against them." They went out and preached that people should repent. They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them. (This is the word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in our faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Commentary

The reading from Mark this morning splits neatly into two distinct parts. Verses 1-6 marks Jesus as a prophet in his own town and verses 7-13 see Jesus sending out his twelve disciples. Open the pages of Bible commentaries and each of these sections are dealt with separately. However, for one moment see them as a whole – with Mark describing the success of the mission of the all-too-human disciples, by contrast with Jesus' lack of success because of people's human perception of him.

Mark 6:1-6. In chapter 5 of Mark's Gospel it seemed that nothing or no one could resist Jesus' ministry. However, in Nazareth it was a different story. Everyone knew Jesus and his family. He was a local craftsman. He was supposed to be just like them so even when they heard him speak (verse 2) and saw him healing (verse 5), people could not shake off their preconceptions. Was he getting above his station in life? Had he, by going away, failed in his duty to his mother? Whatever the reason, it was the attitude of local people that meant that Jesus could 'do no deed of power'. Once again we see the mysterious connection between healing and faith. Lack of faith, it seems, seriously hinders Jesus' power; an important lesson for us all as we try to preach or live God's kingdom. If even Jesus was thwarted by the unbelief of those around, we shouldn't be surprised if sometimes we don't seem able to do what we thought we should. However, we still need to keep in mind both the big picture of what God is doing in our world and our time, and the many smaller pictures of the individual humans, perhaps at the moment in rebellion against the gospel, who by God's grace will become people of faith and prayer.

Mark 6:7-13 In contrast to the first six verses of Mark chapter 6, the result of the twelve's mission of preaching and healing was success. Being sent out without any of the baggage you would expect the disciples to need – provisions, financial protection or the security of extra clothing - they travelled light. However, they went out in Jesus' strength, not their own. They went out with all the authority they needed and they went out in faith. Likewise, we do not need any special qualifications to do God's work here on earth now. We just need to know Jesus and to be sent out by him. Claire Peck

Meditation

I came across the following meditation which for me sums up beautifully the message of the second part of today's reading from Mark. The words in italics are the words of God and the words in ordinary type express how you may sometimes feel.

'O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you.'

Stand up straight said God, and pull your shoulders back,
There's work to be done, and courage that is needed!

But, I really don't feel up to it today, my legs aren't in the mood for movement,
And my head feels better lying down. Try him over there, or her, the other, but not me.

But it's you I want, your legs, your head, so stand up tall and face the day!

What about tomorrow? I'll be feeling stronger then, today I won't be giving you my best.

Today's the day, So rise up brightly, your weakness shall be my strength, your doubts the ground in which your faith will grow. Your faith the means by which I shall bring such good things to be.

Claire Peck

The mission of the church is not to enlarge its membership, not to bring outsiders to accept its terms, but simply to love the world in every possible way--to love the world as God did and does.

Parker Palmer, 20th century (from The Company of Strangers)

Order for Family Worship

Welcome

Opening Prayer minister

Loving God, our creator, our sustainer, Give us hearts that will sing your praise in the highs and the lows.

Give us minds that will put some effort into thinking about how to follow you with honesty.
Help us to worship you with our hearts, minds and bodies.

Help us to live the Christian life with our hearts, minds and bodies.

Help us to be followers of Christ with our hearts, minds and bodies. Amen.

Hymn – King of heaven, King of peace 499

Prayer of adoration - all

We praise you, Loving God, for friends.
For the people who love us with a love that is overwhelming, unending, given without seeking anything in return.

We praise you, Loving God, for Jesus.
For the way he loves us with a love which is more wonderful than any human love, given freely so that we might know you as friend.

We praise you, Loving God, for our love.
For the way we have been shown how to love

by those who love us. For the way we have been taught how to love by Jesus, the friend of all.
Amen.

Prayer of confession - all

Lord, forgive us for the times that we have lost sight of you: when our lives have been too hectic to make time for you and our commitment to your call to mission has passed us by; when we felt too hurt, too ignored, or too worried, to seek you.

Lord, forgive us, help us to listen and to know that you are God, ever faithful, ever true, so that we may be ready to accept your gospel of grace,

Hear the good news:

God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned. In Jesus Christ, therefore, we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

Prayer of Thanksgiving - Minister

Wonderful and surprising God,
for meeting us where we are,
taking us by the hand,
and leading us forward
on the next steps of our journey of faith and life,
we say thank you.
(All) Thank you!

For opening up our eyes
to the possibilities before us, lifting our spirits
where once we were bound fast, helping us to dare to hope that our actions will make a difference,
we say thank you.
(All) Thank you!

Wonderful and surprising God,
receive our prayer of thanksgiving, through Jesus Christ, our friend and guide. Amen.

New Website - After many months of work we are now close to being able to launch our new church website, www.thisischurch.com. The change has been made necessary due to a need to convert our existing site away from old technology to the new standard for websites. This has been a complex procedure given the size of our website and we are grateful to the Methodist Circuit who have helped us by providing funding for the work by professionals. The site will go live in August and we would appreciate comments from church members. You can see the new site by visiting the web address <http://tic.srv26.haisoft.net> Comments please to Charlie by Email. Our website has now been changed to include minutes of meetings. These can be accessed by visiting each church homepage.

Please consider using Amazon.com for your shopping needs. Free delivery on orders over £5

Please always log on to Amazon through www.Thisischurch.com. Only if you do this do we get usually 5% of the cost donated to thisischurch.com. Please remember that if you go and look at items first without going through our link - we will not get the commission!

You can now also buy gift vouchers !

Visit to the RSPB

Christine Nixon, one of our church members from Putnoe works for the RSPB. She has kindly supplied the following information for Partnership News.

The RSPB has its UK headquarters at The Lodge, Bedfordshire, backed up by regional offices around the country. We carry out conservation work at our 200 nature reserves, helping farmers find wildlife-friendly methods, researching bird populations and working with international partners abroad. We also carry out advocacy with government on topics as diverse as planning, wind farms and economics. Getting people of all ages interested in wildlife and the environment is also a vitally important part of our role.

We are the largest wildlife conservation organisation in Europe with over one million members. Wildlife and the environment face many threats. Our work is focussed on the species and habitats that are in the greatest danger. We have more than one million members, over 13,500 volunteers, 2,000 staff, more than 200 nature reserves and one vision- to work for a better environment rich in birds and wildlife. Visit our website: www.rspb.org.uk

The RSPB's UK Headquarters is based at Potton Road, Sandy, on a beautiful nature reserve. You are invited to explore the RSPB headquarters mansion house with a local historian. Former home to Sir Robert Peel and his family with unique features including ornamental gardens and pond. Sunday 6 September 2009. 3.00 – 4.00 pm. Cost: adults £4, RSPB members £2, children £3, RSPB Wildlife Explorers £1.

For more information and to book your place, contact Christine Nixon 01234 305736 (home) 07729 171 907 (mobile).

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

'May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Lord God, father of all, you have made of one blood all the nations to dwell on the face of this earth. Pour down your spirit of peace, that we may learn to love each other as you have first loved us.

Give us tolerance and understanding towards those who are different from us. Shed your love abroad in our hearts that we might break down the walls of partition that divide your people from each other; until all men and women are brought into unity with each other and with you.

That all nations and kindreds and tongues, may with one mouth glorify you. Amen

Grant that it may be our meat and drink to do the will of our Father in heaven. Grant unto us to take up whatever cross is laid upon us and gallantly and gladly to carry it. Grant that as we may share his cross, so we may share his crown; as we share his death, so we may share his life. And so grant that having suffered with him, we may also reign with him. This we ask for your love's sake. Amen.

Church News

The Vatican celebrated last week's with news of two archaeological discoveries. At vespers in the Basilica of St Paul Outside-the-Walls, the Pope announced that a tomb found beneath the church contained the bones of St Paul himself. Three years ago, archaeologists unearthed a marble sarcophagus beneath a slab that is inscribed with the words "Paulo Apostolo Mart" (Paul, apostle and martyr). The discovery lent support to the theory that Paul's body was removed from the catacombs on the Via Appia, and placed beneath a church built in his honour. New carbon analysis of the grave's contents confirmed the presence of bone fragments dating from the first or second century. "All this", Pope Benedict said, "fills our soul with profound emotion."

Vatican archaeologists believe that they have also found the oldest known image of St Paul. A fourth-century fresco, in the catacombs of St Thecla, seems to fit a description of Paul in an apocryphal text as "bald-headed . . . with meeting eyebrows [and] a large red and somewhat hooked nose".

Forthcoming Funerals

The funeral of Mrs Audrey Gladys May Fuller will take place at 1-45p.m on Tuesday 7 July at Bedford Crematorium.

The funeral of Mary Pitts will take place on Friday 10 July at 12.30pm Putnoe Heights Church.
