Thank You

The Flowers at St Mark's this week have been given by Barbara Joy and Elizabeth Bean in loving memory of Alan and Phil on their respective Wedding Anniversaries.

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Harry and Margery Charie on the occasion of their wedding anniversary.

We are grateful when people make donations towards flowers perhaps to celebrate a special occasion such as an anniversary or in memory of a loved one. Please contact Miss Marion Prior 303254 (St Mark's) or Ann Hitt 404186 (Putnoe Heights) or add your name to the rota in the foyers.

Prayer for the Week

In our days of weakness, O Christ,
let us trust in your strength;
in our hours of darkness
let us see your light;
in our seasons of doubt
let us feel your presence;
and in our moments of despair
let us cling to your Cross:
for your truth and your mercy's sake. Amen.

7th Sunday of Easter - Ascension

Opening Sentence from Scripture – Ephesians 1:20

He raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every title that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come.

Collect Prayer for MHA (Before we read we pray)

God of love and hope, of encouragement and challenge, we pray for the work of MHA, for those who live in our Homes, Schemes and Communities, for those who care for them, for those whose vision and research enable new ways of caring, for those in the organisation who direct and manage, for those who support this work with prayer and by raising funds. We acknowledge our need of one another and ask for your gifts of wisdom and understanding that the love of Christ may be shown in all we do. Amen.

First Bible Reading - Acts 1:1-14

In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. After his suffering, he showed himself to these men and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." So when they met together, they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight. They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven." Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day's walk from the city. When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 1 Peter 4:12-14 & 5:6-11

Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed. If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.

Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings. And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

(This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Gospel Reading - John 17:1-11

After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed: "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you. For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him. Now this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

I have brought you glory on earth by completing the work you gave me to do. And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began. "I have revealed you to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word. Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours. All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them.

I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name--the name you gave me--so that they may be one as we are one. (This is the word of the Lord. - Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, giver of love and power, your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world to preach the gospel of his kingdom: confirm us in this mission, and help us to live the good news we proclaim; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Commentary Ascension By Deacon Jane Mason

I don't know about you, but Easter seems a long time ago to me! Ascension is one of those 'festivals' that goes largely unmarked in some traditions, trapped as it is between the joy of resurrection and the gift of Pentecost. Even in those traditions that do focus on it the imagery can be weak or childish, even verging on comical in some churches who have two feet disappearing into a cloud on their ceilings! This part of the journey sits amidst all the incredible accounts of the amazing 'post resurrection' appearances we have been looking at over the past few weeks, and last week we heard Christ promise the pouring out of the spirit, but did the disciples really understand that this meant he was leaving them?

How traumatic it must have been for them, it must almost have felt like a second bereavement, losing him again like that. The disciple stand gazing at the point they last saw him, maybe in them that it is now to ourselves that we must look for change, for when Christ prays for those he leaves behind to he prays also for all who are to come after them, and that includes us.

To Be One

What does it mean 'to be one'? It certainly does not mean that we should be the same, indeed we are nourished and our horizons broadened by the diversity of people and traditions we engage with. Christ tells us that it is through the world seeing our unity that belief will come, how close are we truly to witnessing to that great love, when often a community sees different people going into different buildings to worship separately. What, then, is the love we are required to demonstrate? In an email that was doing the rounds some time ago we read that a group of 4 to 8 year-olds were posed the question, "What does love mean?" The answers they got were broader and deeper, than anyone could have imagined, here are some of the best for your consideration;

When someone loves you, the way they say your name is different, you just know that your name is safe in their mouth." Billy - age 4

"Love is what makes you smile when you're tired." Terri - age 4

"Love is what's in the room with you at Christmas if you stop opening presents and listen." Bobby - age 7

Today we, in the partnership, mark MHA Sunday, this year entitled 'Count me in, older people within an inclusive church', which fits perfectly with this theme.

The 2011 census is to be used to determine the make-up of the population so that people can plan services that reflect the needs of local communities and the nation as a whole. The past few censuses have underlined the ageing nature of our population, and the challenges that this brings to everyone. But if we are not careful with our language, the challenge all too easily gets spoken of in ways which suggest older people are a problem.

The church risks being guilty of this too, I have lost count of the number of church meetings I have been at where those gathered lament the missing younger generations and seek ways to 'entice them in'. We too risk 'jumping on the cultural bandwagon' of negativity, so prevalent in our media, focussing on what we do not have, rather than what we do. I would never suggest that we should not do youth work where it is needed, but sometimes we should perhaps considering ministering better to the people we already have contact with. It is my firm belief that in doing so we would create an attractive community that people would be drawn to, and if we do our job well, it would then be in the nature of that community to meet the needs of its new members.

Growth, by its very nature, requires change and sometimes we have become too comfortable with our own way of doing things that we fail to see how it excludes people, even in the time we have our meetings. To echo some of what Sam shared in our lantern studies, to become inclusive and demonstrate equality may include a level of sacrifice, and perhaps we all need to consider what we are willing to forgo for the sake of growth.

On MHA Sunday, have a look at the age profile of your church and community and, instead of simply focussing on the gaps, look at the challenge of supporting the spiritual needs of those who are there. MHA's age profile is older than most, and it's certainly not a problem, in fact I find my ministry in both Anjulita/Ladyslaude Court MHA and with those at Puttenhoe is one of the most rewarding I have ever engaged with.

But we don't have to feel guilty, in the epistle we are told to lay our burdens with Christ, so I offer you this prayer as a resource;

Lord,
Night comes
And I look back over the day
And see how fragmentary everything has been,
And how much I planned that has gone undone,
And all the reasons I have to be embarrassed and ashamed.
I take everything exactly as it is, put it in your hands and leave it with you.
Now I can rest in you – really rest – and start life as new tomorrow.

St Therese of Lisieux, variation of Edith Stein.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

You are not only risen and alive, you are Lord.
This is your ascension, your ascendancy over the whole universe.
You stand over and above all that is best in life as its source.
You stand above all that is worst as ultimate victor.
You stand above all powers and authorities as judge.
You stand above all failure and weakness and sin as forgiveness and love.
You alone are worthy of total allegiance, total commitment.
You are Lord 'My Lord and my God' Rex Chapman

Lord of Hosts, purify our hearts that the King of Glory may come in, even your Son, Jesus our Redeemer; for he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

O Almighty God, who by thy holy apostle hast taught us to set our affection on things above: grant us so to labour in this life as ever to be mindful of our citizenship in those heavenly places whither our saviour Christ is gone before. Book of Common Prayer South Africa

Parish Church Extravaganza Sunday 26 June will be Open Sunday at many parish churches in the archdeaconry of Bedford. The churches will be open all day for people to enjoy, with a special welcome which often includes refreshments, cream teas etc. Find out more from www.stalbans.anglican.org

Methodist Homes Sunday 12 June is an opportunity to support the work of MHA in the excellent provision it makes in care of older people. With Anjulita Court in our locality, we can see it in practice. Our support is essential and donations are gratefully received. If you would like to contribute, please use the specially provided envelopes in the welcome area and return in the collection plate. Thank you Pam Kinselley.

First Putnoe Brownies are having a fundraising sale on Monday 6th June 6.30-7.30 with raffle tombola, book tombola, childrens lucky dip, games, refreshments. We are splitting the money between the unit and Riverbank Ward at the hospital as we have had 2 Brownies who have been in in the past year.

Action for Children's stall at the recent Car Boot Sale raised £116.59. Very grateful thanks to all the busy workers on the day who gave and sold the goods for the cause.

The Rev. Martin Hounsfeld leaves this circuit where he has been the Superintendent minister at the end of August and starts his retirement. Martin's leaving service is on July 17 and we would like to give him a gift as a thank you for the service he has given to this circuit and to remind him of his time in Bedfordshire. As Martin wants very little fuss we will combine the circuit giving with the Priory and Park Road collections and make a single gift. If you would like to make a donation please give this in a clearly marked envelope to the church treasurers or any member of the Leadership Team.

Call to Worship

Gather us together Lord,
for we come to you as your church.
Gather us together Lord,
we come with our variety and uniqueness.
Gather us together Lord,
we come to be counted as your friends.
Gather us together Lord,
and we will share the gifts of your Spirit.
Gather us together Lord,
for all are welcome within your love.
Amen.

Prayer of Adoration

Living God, we praise you for your promise of your Spirit for all people;
Come Holy Spirit

God of the Spirit of wonder, we see your glory reflected in the variety of earth and sea and stars, in the colours and sounds and shapes of all that we experience. We are amazed and look in awe.

Come Holy Spirit

God of the Spirit of gentleness, we feel your love in the tenderness and touch of friends, in the humour and laughter and tears we share. We are humbled and open our hearts.

Come Holy Spirit

God of the Spirit of diversity, we come as your church, young, old or middle-aged, sporty and energetic or weary or unwell. We are enfolded in love and rejoice in our differences.

Come Holy Spirit

God of the Spirit of hope, we sing of your steadfast love and join our songs with the communion of saints who trust in you. We are confident and rest in your love.

Come Holy Spirit

We praise you for the enlivening, energetic, powerful drive of your Spirit which enables us to know that God is real, that God is here. The Lord says, 'Set your hearts at rest and banish your fears'.

Come Holy Spirit. Amen.

A Hymn for Sunday

We offer Christ to all the world around us, born into faith, released from pride and shame; embraced by love, we show how love has found us;
at peace with God, we speak our Saviour's name.

We offer Christ from all our best traditions, by grace alone, amazed and strangely warmed, created equal, stirred by freedom-visions, self-critical, prepared to be reformed.

We offer Christ; the barrier-bestrider, whose fullness far exceeds our local view, whose Spirit, breathing deep in every culture, brings Christ to us, the same, yet strangely new.

We offer Christ and, God-beloved, our Saviour now offers us, born of the Spirit's kiss, to love creation and creation's Lover, with skill, compassion, justice, care and peace.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
