Thank You

The flowers at Putnoe Heights Church this week have been given by Derrick Wren in memory of the birthday of his wife Betty.

The flowers at St. Mark's Church this week have been given by Richard Ledger in memory of his mother.

Welcome

We especially welcome to our service the family and friends of Grace May Allen who has been brought for baptism.

Prayer for the Week

Lord help us not to stare into the sky waiting for your return.
Enable us to see you with us now - in the cries of the hungry and the thirsty, the loneliness of the stranger, the plight of the naked and those who have nothing in the pains of the sick, and the hopelessness of the prisoner.
May our eyes be opened to see you, may our ears be obedient to your voice, may our hearts reveal you to all in need.
Give us the oil of your love, that the lamps of our lives might burn brightly to your praise and glory.
Amen

Opening Verse of Scripture -1 Peter 1:13

Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed.

Collect Prayer (Before we read we pray)

Eternal God, in whose perfect realm no sword is drawn but the sword of justice, and no strength known but the strength of love: guide and inspire all who seek your kingdom, that peoples and nations may find their security in the love which casts out fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

First Bible Reading - Joshua 24: 1-3a, 14-25

Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Long ago your ancestors, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the Euphrates River and worshiped other gods. But I took your father Abraham from the land beyond the Euphrates and led him throughout Canaan and gave him many descendants. Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD.'" Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods! It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our parents up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we travelled. And the LORD drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God." Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God; he is a jealous God. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins. If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, he will turn and bring disaster on you and make an end of you, after he has been good to you." But the people said to Joshua, "No! We will serve the LORD." Then Joshua said, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD." "Yes, we are witnesses," they replied. "Now then," said Joshua, "throw away the foreign gods that are among you and yield your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel." And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey him." On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he reaffirmed for them decrees and laws (This is the Word of the Lord — Thanks be to God)

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him.

According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.

For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage each other with these words. (This is the Word of the Lord — All: Thanks be to God)

The Wise and Foolish Virgins,

Gospel Reading -

"At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. The wise, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep. "At midnight the cry rang out: 'Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' "Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.

The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.' " 'No,' they replied, 'there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.' "But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut. "Later the others also came. 'Sir! Sir!' they said. 'Open the door for us!' "But he replied, 'I tell you the truth, I don't know you.' "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

(This is the word of the Lord -- Thanks be to God)

Post Communion Prayer

Merciful Father, who gave Jesus Christ to be for us the bread of life, that those who come to him should never hunger: draw us to the Lord in faith and love, that we may eat and drink with him at his table in the kingdom, where he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Hymns (Please distribute morning worship and Mission Praise, baptism booklets at Putnoe)

Blessed Assurance, 59; Give me oil in my lamp, 167; Be Thou my vision, 51; Christ is surely coming, 75; Ye holy angels bright, 783

Commentary

Following on from the parable of the wedding banquet, the discussions about paying taxes to Caesar and marriage at the resurrection, debates about the greatest commandment and the Sonship of Christ, Jesus goes on to berate the Pharisees and then turns His attention to the signs of the end of the age. There will be wars and civil unrest, but ultimately only the Father knows the day and the hour when time will be wrapped up and the whole earth renewed. Jesus continues, 'At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgin who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom...'. Turning once again to the imagery of Jewish custom, Jesus encourages us to be ready for His return.

If we are to be prepared for the future, Matthew's gospel seems to suggest that we should stock up and lay in provisions to see us through emergencies and difficult times. Save up for a rainy day. With the financial crisis across Europe it would seem for many that the rainy days have now arrived – and our stocks and reserves are severely depleted! For Matthew part of the preparation and provisioning for the future involves familiarising ourselves with what we are looking for so that we will recognise it and it will recognise us. The bridesmaids have not prepared themselves for the party, they are just going through the motions, and when they get to the door they are seen for the gatecrashers that they are. Better preparation would have led to a much different outcome. They, and we, it would seem, are to spend time familiarising ourselves with God and His ways so that we can recognise Him and He us. Spending time looking back over God's dealings with us so that we can truly be prepared and have that sure and certain hope of the heavenly banquet that ahead despite all the uncertainties that may lie in between. The resources we have in our storerooms reflect only what we have put in them beforehand. Henri Nouwen writes, 'When our gratitude for the past is only partial, our hope for a new future can never be full... ...If we are to be truly ready for a new task in the service of God, our entire past, gathered into the spaciousness of a converted heart, must become the source of energy that moves us toward the future'.

It's a personal responsibility. Oil is often seen as a sign of repentance and as we look back over the past as we prepare for the coming of Christ it's important that our own relationship with God is right. Just as the wise virgins could not share their oil with the foolish ones, we cannot ask others to repent on our behalf. It's something we need to do for ourselves as we turn to Christ on a regular basis as we ask God for forgiveness of our sins and to continually renew and transform us and our lives. For whilst the passage is about being prepared for the coming of Christ, it's also about what we do, who we live and act while we wait. Our lives need to be lit by the oil of action in addition to being illuminated by the lamps of intention. Whenever it is when Christ returns, it seems one of the factors we do know is that it will be when we least expect it and we are to be ready for that time – before it is too late to put matters right in our lives. Jesus invites us to join with Him in the wedding banquet of His love for the whole world. As a church and as individuals we are to be ready and willing to respond to that invitation. We are called to live in a manner which demonstrates our readiness for the coming of the renewed Kingdom of God, whenever that happens.

Economically the future does look uncertain. The political landscape of the world is changing radically. But as we look back as Matthew encourages us to do, we see can see that we can be prepared and assured of an eternal future. It is God Himself who continues to offer hope and a future despite all the economic turmoil, political change and military conflicts around the world. Sam Cappleman

Meditation

Barry D Blanton writing in his Monday Morning Minute piece discusses what makes a great leader. He comments: Consider these two great quotes regarding humility and why it is a key to quality leadership. "Humility is not about thinking less of yourself; it is about thinking about yourself less." Humility is a great virtue, but it does not mean you have to think less of yourself. Being humble means thinking of others more than yourself. That does not mean that you think less of yourself. As a matter of fact you can feel a whole lot better about yourself by thinking more about others. You may not associate humility with great leadership but truly exceptional leaders understand the importance of humility. Ezra Taft Benson wrote, "Pride is concerned with who is right. Humility is concerned with what is right." As leaders we should be concerned with what is right, not if we are right. What a great world it would be if we were all more concerned with what is right than who is right. We spend a lot of time defending our position, arguing our viewpoint and building our own individual case. Is our position always what is right? That seems doubtful. There are times we may be arguing for what is right, but often we are just concerned with being right. Sometimes we even know that we are not right, but we just can't bring ourselves to admit that we are wrong. It should not be about being wrong. It should be about what is right. This is a tough one for many leaders. Often leaders think they are supposed to be right and always have the answers. Leadership is not about being focused on oneself and always being right. Leadership is about thinking more about others and what the right answer is for the situation.

Prayers for Sunday and the week ahead

Most gracious God and Father, in whose will is our peace: turn our hearts and the hearts of all people to yourself, that by the power of your spirit, the peace which is founded on righteousness may be established throughout the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

O Lord our God, make us watchful and keep us faithful as we wait for the coming of your Son; then when He appears, He will not find us sleeping in sin, but active in His service and joyful in His praise, for the glory of your Holy name. Amen

Living God, you have given us a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead: grant that we, being risen with Him, may fix our hearts on heavenly things and share eternal life. Amen

God grant to the living, grace; to the departed, rest; to the people of every church and nation, peace and concord; and to us and all the servants of God, life everlasting; and may the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

You let us choose, O God, between you and the false gods of this world. In the midst of the night of sin and death, wake us from our slumber and call us forth to greet Christ, so that with eyes and hearts fixed on him, we may follow to eternal light. Amen.

Mission Appeal 'A time to give thanks, for things we take for granted' Thank you to those who have already given gifts for our Mission Appeal this year BeCHaR. Friends for Life was established as a joint Anglican - Methodist scheme to provide volunteer visitors to Care Homes in Bedford. Currently we have over 40 volunteers visiting in 14 homes across the town, with over 50 residents benefitting from these visits. The project is continually looking for more volunteers who feel they could spare an hour or two a month to chat. We are running a Volunteer Induction Day at St Mark's on Saturday, 5th November and would be pleased to hear from anyone in the congregation who is interested in joining us. joanne.barrow4@ntlworld.com 01234 213038 www.friendsforlifebedford.org.uk

Putnoe Good Neighbours need volunteers. We are a voluntary group who do what we can to be good neighbours. We are not asking for any set time commitment, just a helping hand when someone in the community needs occasional help. It could be 10 minutes to collect a prescription, read a form or water plants when they go to into hospital. Be part of the Putnoe Big Society. For information please call or text; 07968 300033.

Commemoration Service. There will be a service remembering loved ones on Sunday 13 November at 3.00pm at St Mark's Church. All are invited to come along to this service at which prayer candles may be lit in memory of those who have died.

Missions Group at Putnoe Heights church have sent a cheque for £150 to the British Red Cross for the turkey earthquake appeal.

Advent Texts and Emails- This Advent the Diocese of St Albans is offering a very special kind of Advent calendar. They will send you every day a text or email with a special religious thought for Christmas. It will help you to take time to pause each day to prepare for Christmas. You can sign up by visiting www.livethechallenge.co.uk where you can also download stories and activity sheets

Some Expressions of Thanks

Thank You Putnoe Heights for the stunning Autumn coloured bouquet of flowers. I miss each and everyone of you, thank you for all your prayers. God Bless You All. Love Deborah Wallace

To all my friends at Putnoe Heights Church I would like to express my thanks and for your concern about my care and welfare, hospital and home visits, flowers, etc. God bless you all. Arthur.

Thank You We would like to 'thank you' for the very generous Gift Token and beautiful flowers you gave us last Sunday, it was so kind of you all. We would also like to thank you for the friendship and fellowship you have afforded us over the last four years making us so welcome at both Churches. We shall miss you. Mike and Penny

St Mark's Church Christmas Craft Fayre Saturday 19 November

There are now only 2 weeks to go to our Annual Christmas Craft Fayre on Saturday 19 November 2011. We would be grateful for any help with the following:-

Tombola: Any new unwanted gifts\Christmas present etc. for our Tombola stall.

Cake Stall: Milly is kindly co-ordinating the cake stall again this year. She would be very grateful for any offers of cakes. If you are able to bake a cake for this stall please contact Milliy via the Church Office.

Refreshments: We would very much appreciate donations of tray bakes to sell with tea and coffee. Ploughman's lunches will be on sale at lunchtime as usual. Volunteers to help in the kitchen on the day would be very much appreciated. To put your name down please see Avril Williams. Any help gratefully received.

Secondhand Book Stall: Delia has agreed to coordinate the secondhand book stall again this year so please have a look in your cupboards for any unwanted books. We do ask that they be in good condition please Indoor Plant Stall: After the success of last year's plant stall we are doing the same again this year. If you have any indoor plants or have split any plants and would like to donate them to our stall we would be very grateful. Marion would be pleased to receive gift of either indoor or outdoor plants, also small carrier bags. All donated items for the above stalls can be brought up to Church anytime during week beginning 15 November please (unfortunately we do not have space to store items before the 15 November).

We will need lots of help on the day especially when the Fayre finishes at 3.30p.m. Many hands make light work and it would certainly be appreciated

Two Weeks to go and counting

Thank you for your support so far with items for the Fayre. This week the Street leaflets are available from the table in the Foyer. We would be very grateful if you could take your street and deliver the leaflets to each house. If you can do another street as well that would be wonderful. Any leaflets left over please return to the Church. All the Christmas services are also printed on the back, so it is quite important to make sure Brickhill is informed about St. Mark's Christmas Services.

Raffle tickets are also available.

Please take a few books and sell to family and friends. It is a good way of advertising the event. Please make sure that you bring any counterfoils, money and unsold books back to St Mark's Church office by 18 November.

Any items (books, plants new gifts for Tombola etc.) for the Fayre can be brought up to Church anytime week beginning 14 November. Sadly we do not have room to store items before then.

Many thanks Avril Williams

A Hymn for Sunday

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
be all else but naught to me, save that thou art;
be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord;
be thou my great Father, and I thy true son;
be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

Be thou my breastplate, my sword for the fight;
be thou my whole armour, be thou my true might;
be thou my soul's shelter, be thou my strong tower:
O raise thou me heavenward, great Power of my power.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise:
be thou mine inheritance now and always;
be thou and thou only the first in my heart:
O Sovereign of heaven, my treasure thou art.

High King of heaven, thou heaven's bright Sun,
O grant me its joys after vict'ry is won;
great Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be thou my vision, O Ruler of all.

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

Wayne Tyrone Armstrong

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
