Christmas Day Family Worship

Verse from Scripture

Minister: The people walking in darkness have seen a great light
All: On those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has shined
Isaiah Chapter 9

Minister: In the name of Christ, the light of the world, we welcome you. Grace, mercy and peace be always with you.
All: And also with you

Opening Prayer

Lord Jesus, before whom the wise men laid their gifts, and whom humble shepherds worshipped, accept our praises as we celebrate your birth at Bethlehem, and be born in our hearts today. Amen.

The Last Candle - The Birth of Christ

Leader: Light and peace, in Jesus Christ our Lord
All: Thanks be to God

Leader: Today is Christmas Day the day on which we celebrate the gift to us of the birth of Jesus and recall the hope we have in Christ. Today we light again the candles of hope, peace, love and joy. (Each candle will be lit as the reader speaks)

First Candle-We speak of hope - because God keeps his promises to us.

Second Candle-We work for peace - because Jesus is the 'Prince of Peace' and he calls his children to work for peace in his name.

Third Candle-We show love - because Jesus gave everything for us and led us to know the forgiveness of God.

Fourth Candle-We share joy - because the Holy Spirit fills our hearts and minds with the presence the God

Last Candle Now we light our last candle to remember the birth of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ which we celebrate this Christmas Day. As the prophets promised so long ago, you have come to us once again; and with the shepherds, we are filled with wonder and amazement. (Light the white Christ candle now.)

Lord, you come as a tiny, fragile baby; yet we know that you are God and you are with us. May the flame of this candle remind us that you are the light of the world and that if we follow you, we will never walk in darkness, but will have the true light of life. We look forward to that day when you will come again and we will behold you face to face with all the company of heaven'.

All: Come, Lord Jesus, come. Amen.

Hymn

104 Good Christians all rejoice

Confession

Minister Christ the light of the world has come to dispel the darkness of our hearts. In his light let us examine ourselves and confess our sins.

All: O Jesus Christ, risen master and triumphant Lord, we come to you in sorrow for our sins, and confess to you our weakness and unbelief. We have lived by our own strength and not by the power of your resurrection. We have lived by the light of our own eyes, as though faithless and unbelieving. We have lived for this world alone and doubted our home in heaven.

We turn to you again and ask that you would have mercy on us. As those who were once in darkness but have now received your light in Jesus Christ, the light of the world.

Hymns

*Christmas bells! Christmas bells! Christ is born they say.
He came down to earth for us, In Mary's arms he lay.*

Angels made it known, shepherds came to see, the King of kings and Lord of lords, in a stable born for me.

In the inn they found no room, in a manger he was laid,
where the ox and ass, dumb animals, in a tribute lowed and brayed.

Wise men came from far, precious gifts they brought, to the One who gave up all for us and made himself as nought.

He came and still he's here, still with us today.
So let us put our trust in him, the Truth, the Life, the Way.

Come and join the celebration, its a very special day:
come and share our jubilation, there's a new king born today!

See the shepherds hurry down to Bethlehem, gaze in wonder at the Son of God who lay before them. Come and.....

Wise men journey, led to worship by a star, kneel in homage, bringing precious gifts from lands afar, So...

God is with us, round the world the message bring,
He is with us, 'welcome', all the bells on earth are pealing.. Come and.....

Offering

(If you are a tax payer, please use the envelopes provided so that we can reclaim tax, thank you!)

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the splendour and the majesty; for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.
All things come from you, and of your own do we give you.

Collect Prayer

Almighty God you have given us your only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin: grant that we, who have been born again and made your children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever. Amen.

Bible Readings

Isaiah Chapter 9:2-7

The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned. You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy; they rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest, as men rejoice when dividing the plunder. For as in the day of Midian's defeat, you have shattered the yoke that burdens them, the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor. Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, will be fuel for the fire. For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

Titus 2:11-14

For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, while we wait for the blessed hope--the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.

Luke 2:1-14

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to his own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favour rests."

Prayers

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Hymn

92 Angels from the realms of glory.

Final Prayer

God our Father, whose word has come among us in the Holy Child of Bethlehem: may the light of faith illuminate our hearts and shine in our words and deeds; through him who is Christ the Lord.

The Blessing

May the joy of the angels, the eagerness of the shepherds, the perseverance of the wise men, the obedience of Joseph and Mary, and the peace of the Christ-child be yours this Christmas; and the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be upon you and remain with you always.
Amen.

Lunch Club

Since the unexpected closure of Gold, due to lack of finances, a slimmed down operation has been operated by Social Services. This has been of enormous help to people with learning disabilities who have depended on that group for support. We were delighted when an award from the European Social Fund of £160,000 was made to St Mark's to enable them to take on staff and provide a service which will be able to provide for the needs of these existing members. The funding is strictly monitored to ensure compliance with the stated objectives of enabling people with learning disabilities to enter meaningful employment. It is apparent that providing the training plans and operating this service on two sites is not satisfactory and the Management Committee have been asked to try and make it easier for the new group 'Clubhouse' by operating at St Mark's on all three days.

This would only be possible if alternative and satisfactory arrangement could be found for the Lunch Club. This week Lunch Club leaders met and discussed a proposal that the Lunch Club move to Putnoe Heights Church. The leaders recognised that there would need for alternative transport arrangements and some logistical changes if this were to be possible. However they were overwhelmingly supportive and kindly agreed that they would be prepared to move to allow the work with people with learning disabilities to succeed. The change will not be effective immediately but will take place after consultation with members in the New Year. Therefore expect the first Lunch Club gatherings to be at St Mark's as usual and any changes will be announced beforehand.

For some people this change will make things easier, for others it will be more difficult and we will need to ensure that transport is provided so that nobody is unable to continue. The Management Committee at St Mark's are grateful to Lunch Club and everybody at Putnoe who have co-operated to enable them to meet the difficulties with which they have been presented. It is yet another blessing which has come from the Partnership of our two churches. Thank you for your understanding and patience.

The children of St Mark's Church performed their nativity entitled '2 whoopsie-daisie angels.' The two angles Kitty Hannan and Ella Griffin clearly stole the show, but all the parents and teachers were delighted by the Christmas spectacular.

Thank You—Sam, Neil, Joan and Charlie would like to say thank you to evybody who has kindly sent cards and Christmas greetings. We wish you all a very happy Christmas and peaceful New Year.

Rotas—Copies of the next quarter Rota are now available

Office Closure. St Mark's and Putnoe Heights Church Offices will open again on Tuesday 4 January 9.00am

We publish the banns of and pray for the marriage of Adam Spence Webster and Sarah Helen Brown both of this parish. This is for the 3rd time of asking

Rest In Peace

On the Sunday following a funeral service we remember in church those who have died. We light a candle to symbolise the light of Christ which eternally shines and brings hope. If you would like a person remembered in our service when the candle is lit, perhaps on an anniversary or birthday, please inform the ministers, or telephone the church office.

James Alexander

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.'
